

December 2015

Welcome to our new Chief Executive Officer Steven Morrissey

After a rigorous recruitment and selection process Steven Morrissey has been appointed the new CEO of SouthEast Housing Cooperative.

An electrician by trade, Steven lives in West Gippsland with his wife, their two daughters and Cruiser the dog. The family enjoys camping and fishing trips, and occasionally (very occasionally in recent times!) attending AFL matches involving Carlton.

Steven has over fifteen years of senior management experience in the not-for-profit sector, holds a Master's Degree in Business Management, and is very much looking forward to working with the SouthEast Housing Co-op team on behalf of its members.

Annual XMAS Party 6 December 2015

The third annual members Xmas Party on Sunday 6 December 2015 was a WOW event with a record attendance of over 150 – members and their children. Healesville Sanctuary turned on the nice weather and families enjoyed the truly festive meal, drinks and very welcome icy poles as they spread out over the verdant green lawns under the shade of ferns and gums and through the pavilion.

The young people and parents of the family volunteers painted faces, made decorations, badges and glitter was everywhere lighting up faces, and smiles were all round especially when the golden bell rang with Ho Ho Ho's and a bespectacled Father Christmas and his "elves" appeared with Santa dressed in sartorial splendour and the shiniest boots I have ever seen. There were bags upon bags of gifts for the children and their parents and the volunteers, with the name of each child and young person written on them. No one was left out.

The true Xmas spirit is the children who really believe in Father Christmas, and some grownups!
